

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the law has been enacted I feel like I have my phone back. I have caller ID but when un-available would come up I never answered the phone. I used to receive 6 calls a day but now I don't receive any. It's GREAT!!